Student Support for the Howdy Farm On Campus Farm Bill

"A bill recognizing the accomplishments of the Howdy Farm"

Whereas(1): Texas A&M University has deep agricultural roots and remains a world leader in agricultural research and learning; and,

Whereas(2): The Howdy Farm is a successful symbol of this agricultural heritage, and creates large quantities of produce; and,

Whereas(3): This University and students have invested substantial time and over $146,000 to make the Howdy Farm an invaluable educational tool.

Therefore
Let it be
Enacted(1): The Student Government Association recognizes and congratulates the Howdy Farm for advancing agricultural learning at Texas A&M; and,

Let it be
Further
Enacted(2): Advocates for the continued existence of an on campus farm to support agricultural education and awareness for future generations of Aggies; and,
Let it be
Further
Enacted(3): If the farm is to be relocated it should be comparable in size and should be accessible by either walking or bus; and,

Let it be
Further
Enacted(4): In the event that future development of facilities is planned on the current Howdy Farm location, best efforts should be made to integrate the farm into the said facilities; and,

Let it be
Further
Enacted(5): A copy should of this legislation should be sent to President Loftin, Provost Watson, and Dean Hussey (Vice chancellor and Dean of the College of AgriLife), and Lt. Gen. Webber.