The Executive Branch Reporting Amendment
Special Designation: Constitutional Amendment

"An Amendment enhancing the reporting requirement of the Executive branch to better the dissemination of information relevant the enactment of passed legislation.

Whereas(1): Article III, Section III, subsection (m) of the Student Government Association Constitution states that "The Student Body President shall be ultimately responsible for the lack of timely implementation of any statute enacted by the Student Senate"; and,

Whereas(2): The current procedures that notify Senators and other students of progress on legislation are not always thorough and complete; and,

Whereas(3): It is in the best interest of the Texas A&M Student Government Association and the student body to be made better aware of the impact that the legislation that has been passed is impacting students.
Therefore
Let it be Enacted(1):

That Article III, Section III, subsection (m) of the Student Government Association Constitution shall be amended as follows:

“The Student Body President shall be ultimately responsible for the lack of timely implementation of any statute enacted by the Student Senate. For this reason, the Student Body President and his Executive cabinet shall provide a written summary of legislation enactment progress to the Internal Affairs Committee of the Student Senate for the purpose of inclusion in communication to the Senate body. That this written summary must be submitted before 12 p.m. each Sunday preceding a Senate meeting and must include all legislation passed from the current session.”
