"A bill requesting that dining venues on West Campus, the MSC, and Azimuth Cafe extend their hours to serve dinner"

Whereas(1): Many students on main campus have limited dining options for dinner; and,

Whereas(2): The MSC is a prominent location on campus, housing various organizational meetings and serving as a central meeting place; and,

Whereas(3): While there are a few options for dinner, the main “cafeteria” closes early and often runs out of food by the time many students could have an early dinner

Whereas(4): Students on West Campus have particularly few options for dinner and many of them choose to either take a bus to main campus or go off campus to eat; and,

Whereas(5): Students in the architecture department spend considerable amount of time in studio at night, but are unable to have dinner at Azimuth Cafe.

Therefore
Let it be
Enacted(1): That at least one dining venue on West Campus should extend their hours to offer dinner for students or an additional dining venue should be created to accommodate the needs of West Campus students and faculty; and,
Let it be
