Voter Registration Thank You Resolution

"A resolution thanking the Senators and A&M students who dedicated their valuable time to the cause of helping our fellow Aggies become politically involved."

Whereas(1): Most college students are not registered to vote where they attend school; and,

Whereas(2): Voting is very important for having a stake in your society and being politically active; and,

Whereas(3): Having a large voting block of students could be particularly beneficial to students at the local and state level; and,

Whereas(4): Numerous students and senators donated their valuable time this summer in an effort to help register their peers to vote; and,

Whereas(5): Over 1,200 voter registration cards were distributed.
