Honor the Fallen Resolution

"A resolution calling for the inclusion of Tobi Oyedeji in the Silver Taps to be held on October 5, 2010."

Whereas(1): Potential applicants to Texas A&M value the education of our University, but also Texas A&M’s heralded traditions contribute greatly to the attractiveness of the undergraduate experience; and,

Whereas(2): Individuals who commit to attending Texas A&M University are new additions to the Aggie family and deserve the same respect as both current and former students alike through their inclusion in the hallowed traditions of this institution; and,

Whereas(3): Mr. Tobi Oyedeji had committed to attend Texas A&M University in order to pursue his undergraduate education, play for the Fightin’ Texas Aggie basketball team, and clearly intended to begin attending classes for the Summer 2010 academic semester as a member of the Aggie family; and,

Whereas(4): The Student Senate firmly believes that failing to include Tobi Oyedeji in the September 2010 Silver Taps was a grievous mistake and should be corrected as soon as possible.
Therefore
Let it be
Resolved(1): That the Texas A&M Student Senate, as the representative body of the students of Texas A&M University, extends its deepest condolences to the family of Tobi Oyedeji and sincerely regrets their loss; and,

Let it be
Further
Resolved(2): That the Silver Taps to be held on October 5, 2010 should include Tobi Oyedeji among those fallen students to be honored; and,

Let it be
Further
Resolved(3): That this resolution shall be sent to the family of Tobi Oyedeji, Texas A&M University President R. Bowen Loftin, and the Texas A&M University Traditions Council.
