

The Student Senate

Texas A&M University

S.R. 69-03

The Student Senate
69th Session
Texas A&M University

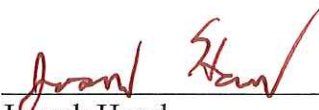

Introduced By: Liberal Arts Caucus, Alexander Rodriguez
Co-Authored By: Lino Anunciacion, Student Representative
Felice Yarbough, Student Representative

Sponsored By: Alexander Rodriguez, Liberal Arts
Aubre Dean, Off-Campus
Chandler Smith, COALS
Vincent Turner, Off-Campus
Kasey Khoobiar, Liberal Arts

Action Taken

Certified By:

Joseph Hood
Speaker of the Senate

Police brutality is not an Aggie core value.

"In response to TAMU Yell's misconduct, the student senate declares police brutality a violation of the Aggie honor code and does not condone or promote police brutality, whether it is in real life events or symbolic in nature."

Whereas(1): Whereas on Friday September 2nd, 2016 TAMU Yell leaders fable referenced police brutality as something done by good Aggies.

Whereas(2): Whereas TAMU Yell leaders and faculty advisors failed to screen the fables before they were to be presented on Friday September 2nd, 2016.

Whereas(3): Whereas to make clear that the Student Senate does not condone police brutality in any context nor does the university or faculty.

The Student Senate

Texas A&M University

Therefore

Let it be

Resolved(1): That the 69th Student Senate does not condone police brutality in any context nor does the university or faculty.

Let it be

Further

Resolved(2): That in the opinion of the student senate an apology from the TAMU Yell to the entire student body and faculty would begin to bridge the divide between TAMU Yell and the students, faculty, and alumni they represent.

Senate Resolution S.R. 68-XX – Page 2 of X Further Certified By:

A handwritten signature in red ink, appearing to read "Joseph Hood", is written over a horizontal line.

Joseph Hood
Speaker of the Senate