Whereas(1): In light of recent remarks made by certain members of our student leadership that perpetuated rape culture, misogyny, and cyberbullying, the Student Senate has an obligation as representatives of the university to denounce such actions from further taking place both within the body and on our campus; and,

Whereas(5): By raising awareness about the message we hope to convey through this resolution, we are able to encourage other Student Senators as well as leaders across our campus to conduct themselves in a way that embraces the honor of their respective offices, accountability for their actions, and mutual respect amongst one another regardless of individual discrepancies.
