The Dr. Karan Watson Selfless Service Resolution

"A resolution thanking Provost Karan Watson for more than thirty years of Selfless Service to Texas A&M University and its students."

- Whereas(1): Provost Karan Watson, Ph.D., has selflessly served Texas A&M since 1983, when she joined the University as a faculty member in the College of Engineering; and,
- Whereas(2): Since 2009 she has served as Provost and University Executive Vice President for Texas A&M, first in the interim and later appointed in 2011; and,
- Whereas(3): Dr. Watson has played an instrumental role in the elevation of Texas A&M to its current status as a world-class university; and,
- Whereas(4): Dr. Watson has announced that she will be stepping down as university Provost upon the appointment of her successor, and it is proper and necessary that she receive the recognition that she more than deserves for her years of service for the students of Texas A&M.

Therefore
Let it be

Resolved(1): That the Texas A&M Student Senate, as the official voice of the students of Texas A&M, formally expresses their deepest gratitude to Provost Karan Watson for her years of selfless service to Texas A&M University and its students.
