Nicholas Taunton was born and raised in Katy, Texas. He attended Strake Jesuit High School and Texas A&M University.

During his time at Texas A&M, Nic was involved in an array of activities including: Fish Aides, Student Government, Student Body President campaigns, Aggie Relay for Life, Mays Business Fellows program, a University Presidential Advisory Search Committee, Aggie Men's Club, and he also served as Student Body President. He graduated from Texas A&M University in December 2007 with a finance degree. Nic is a recipient of the Brown Foundation-Earl Rudder Memorial Outstanding Student Award.

After graduation from Texas A&M, Nic spent four months in Rwanda as a volunteer consultant for an economic development project dealing with coffee exportation. He then spent the next 3 years at the University of Texas School of Law. While at UT Law, Nic dedicated the majority of his extracurricular time to interscholastic mock trial teams, earning him membership into the Order of Barristers. After law school, Nic began his legal career at Fulbright & Jaworski LLP in the litigation department.
