

The Student Senate

Texas A&M University

S.R. 71-31

The Student Senate
71st Session
Texas A&M University

Support for Foundations of Money Education Resolution

"A resolution to show the student body's support for the Foundations of Money Education course to become eligible for financial aid and to be considered a core curriculum course"

Action Taken

PASSED

Certified By:

Mitch Parker
Speaker of the Senate

Introduced By: Jacob Powell, Academic Affairs Chair, College of Engineering
Amy Sharp, Student Body President

Sponsored By: Adel Quntar, Diversity and Inclusion Chair, College of Engineering
Tate Banks, Speaker Pro Tempore, Off Campus
Eric Mendoza, Legislative Affairs Chair, Off Campus
Mathew Walter, Finance Chair, Mays Business School
Gilberto Reboloso, Community Relations Chair, On Campus
Colton Mandel, Constituency Affairs, Off Campus

Whereas(1): There are many academic and personal benefits to taking the Foundations of Money Education course; and,

Whereas(2): Among those benefits are financial literacy, preparation for post-graduation success, education on selecting, applying for, managing, and repaying student loans, and many other financial skills relevant to all college students; and,

Whereas(3): To count for federal financial aid purposes, a course must provide degree applicable credit hours; and,

The Student Senate

Texas A&M University

Senate Resolution S.R. 71-31 – Page 2 of 2 Further Certified By:

Mitch Parker
Speaker of the Senate

Whereas(4): To become eligible to provide credit hours for the 2020/2021 academic year, a course must be approved through the proper administrative channels by the end of the 2019 calendar year; and,

Whereas(5): A course satisfying the requirements of Texas A&M's University Core Curriculum is more amenable to students' degree plans;

Therefore

Let it be

Resolved(1): Foundations of Money Education should be considered for credit hour eligibility for the 2020/2021 academic year; and,

Let it be

Further

Resolved(2): Foundations of Money Education should be considered for University Core Curriculum eligibility for the 2020/2021 academic year; and,

Let it be

Further

Resolved(3): A copy of this resolution be sent to:
Nick Kilmer, Assistant Director of the Money Education Center
The Battalion