An SGA Student Representative for the City of College Station Bill

A bill supporting the creation of a position in the Texas A&M University Student Government Association to serve as an official non-voting student representative to the City of College Station.

- Whereas(1): The student population of Texas A&M University has increased to 50,000+ students and, in turn, students are a huge percentage of the College Station population and,
- Whereas(2): Such a large student population makes it essential that the voice of the students is heard and represented by the City of College Station when there issues regarding students in community, and
- Whereas(3): A non-voting student representative to serve as the official voice of students to city council and to sit on city committees would be in the best interest to represent student needs, as well as report to and work with SGA Senate and Executive branches, and
- Whereas(4): If this initiative is successful, it could lead to better communication with the City of Bryan and other governments and communities within the Bryan/College Station area; and,
