Student Conduct Records Access Bill

A bill to improve the access of students to their records.

Whereas(1): Students accused of violating a student rule are informed of the charges via secure email; and,

Whereas(2): To access the details of the complaint they must appear in person to Cain Hall; and,

Whereas(3): Students are not allowed to take pictures or make copies of their file; and,

Whereas(4): Students are not allowed to retain copies of the recording of the procedure; and,

Whereas(5): Restricting students from their own records diminishes their ability to prepare for hearings and appeals; and,

Whereas(6): Students should be able to refer to their records outside of normal business hours and without having to go to Cain Hall.

Therefore
Let it be

Enacted(1): That a copy of the complaint and file be sent along with the letter informing the student of the charges brought against him/her; and,
