The CPR Abolishment Act

"An act to abolish the Comprehensive Program Review"

- Whereas(1): The Comprehensive Program Review (CPR) to review all of the Student Government Association committees, commissions, and branches efficiency but does not give a clear means to do that, in fact, it hasn't happened been done since it was written into the code; and,
- Whereas(2): CPR says that the committee should be assigned a topic from a list of categories yet does not explain how that category should be assigned; and,
- Whereas(3): The three Chairs of the CPR Process shall seek the appropriate training from the SGA Advisor or Student Life Studies staff members prior to the running of the process, yet no such exact training exists; and,
