Tee Up with SGA Recognition and Appreciation Resolution

"A resolution thanking Emily Young and the Development Commission for their work on the first annual SGA Golf Tournament."

Whereas(1): Texas A&M Student Government Association seeks to serve all Students with excellence in accordance with our mission and the core values of Texas A&M university; and,

Whereas(2): Texas A&M Student Government utilizes $50,000 from the Student Services Fee to provide programming and other services to students; and,

Whereas(3): The Development Commission works tirelessly to eliminate the use student fees by raising money for the $1,000,000 Student Government Association Endowment; and,

Whereas(4): This has been the first year for Tee up with SGA, which has set a precedent for the future of the Development Commission in raising funds, and required hours of work from the members of the Development Commission.

Therefore Let it be

Resolved(1): That the Texas A&M University Student Senate thanks Emily Young for her leadership of the Development Commission, successfully planning and executing the first annual Tee up with SGA golf tournament in accordance with the mission of the Student Government Association. The time and effort put into the tournament is inspirational, and is a true depiction of the Aggie spirit to serve others.
