Whereas(1): Silver Taps is a sacred, time-honored tradition of Texas A&M University that serves as one of the final tributes the student body makes to students who have passed during the month(s) leading up to the service; and,

Whereas(2): This solemn tradition was established in 1898 to commemorate the life of Lawrence Sullvian Ross, and has been preserved for over a century to pay homage to those we have lost since; and,

Whereas(3): As long as Texas A&M University continues to serve and educate those who walk the campus, Silver Taps will remain as a pillar of the Aggie way of life.
