Whereas(1): On November 3rd, 2020 College Station City Council held a general election for Council Places 1,3, and 5 as well as a runoff for the Place 4 special election; and,

Whereas(2): College Station City Council Place 5 had more than two candidates, with incumbent John Nichols and challenger Craig Regan neither receiving over 50% of votes triggering a run-off election¹; and,

Whereas(3): A run-off election for City Council Place 5 took place on December 15, 2020, with John Nichols receiving 79.5% of the total votes and securing reelection to the College Station City Council seat²; and,

Whereas(4): Bob Brick led his City Council Place 1 raise by a close margin of six votes, leading to a petition being filed for a manual recount of votes¹; and,

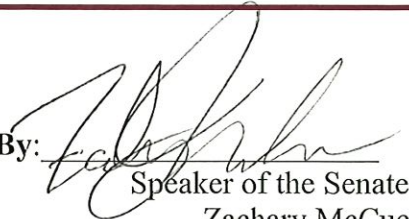

Whereas(5): Once the absentee and mail-in ballots were recounted with no changes to the outcome the recount was withdrawn, Bob Brick was officially reelected to College Station City Council Place 1¹; and,
